Project Details:

Project Title: Pinedale/Jackson Informative Signs

Project Type: Education

Affiliate: Wyoming Game and Fish Department

Project Location: Jackson, WY

Project Description: To replace and upgrade the Big Game Crucial Winter Range interpretive sign at Stinking Springs, the "Healthy Habitat Means Healthy Wildlife" sign at Soda Lake WHMA and all thirteen faded and dilapidated signs along the Soda Lake WHMA Nature Trail by 2018. Also the installation of two new interpretive signs near Fremont Lake raising public awareness as to the Hoback to Red Desert Mule Deer Migration route as well as two dedication signs at Remmick PAA. The grant money from Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation will be used for the Big Game Crucial Winter Range sign at Stinking Springs near Hoback Junction.

Project Problem: Removal of outdated signs and replacing them with new signs.

Problem Solution: Upon funding a contractor will be selected to create the signs and WGFD with the help of volunteers and local habitat group will install the signs in the fall of 2017 or summer of 2018.
